Berlin, April 20. Some imagine that the King's Troops are entrenching, only that they may ſtand on their Defence during his Majeſty's Abſence, who is ſaid to be already gone to act in Perſon againſt the Ruſſians that threaten Pomerania.

LONDON, April 19.

The laſt Letters from Paris contain the following tragical Scene which happened lately at Clermont in Auvergne.—The Abbe de Rouſſillon, Canon of that Town, viſited often at M. de Champflour's, Lieutenant-General of the Bailiwick. One Day laſt Month he called at Five in the Evening, and aſked if Miſs de Champflour, the Gentleman's Daughter, was at home. Being told that ſhe was gone out, but was expected home to Supper, he went up to her Mother's Apartment to wait her Return. When Miſs came, Supper was ſerved: The Abbe ſat next to her, and they were very merry. When the Cloth was removed, both ſtood up next the Fire. The Abbe whiſpered ſomething to Miſs, who anſwered him in the ſame Manner: And that Inſtant he ſtabbed her with a Dagger. As ſhe fell back into an eaſy Chair, ſhe ſhrieked out; on which the Cannon gave her two Stabs more, and diſpatched her. The young Lady's Brother hearing her Shriek, and apprehending ſome Violence had been offered her, fell upon the Canon, who made off: Turning round, the Sight of the Blood on the Chair and running about the Room, ſtruck him motionleſs. He looked at his Siſter, who juſt opened her Eyes once, to ſhut them for ever. He ran after the Murderer; but he, acquainted with all the Avenues to the Houſe, was already got out. Notice was immediately ſent to the Intendant, who ordered the Gates of the Town to be ſhut. They ſearched for the Murderer all Night in vain: But next Day he was taken at the Mont d'Or, and ſent to Priſon; he will ſoon receive the juſt Reward of his Crime, if he hath not got it already.

April 26. They write from Vienna of the 7th Inſtant, that a Duel was lately fought in Bohemia, between the two Auſtrian Generals, De Ville and Draſkowitz, in which the former was killed, and the latter made his Eſcape into Poland.

May 8. We are informed that the Son of an African Prince was committed ſome Time ſince to the Care of a Captain of an African Ship to be brought over to England for his Education, which the Captain was intruſted to pay for here, and was handſomely rewarded for his Trouble; but the Captain, inſtead of performing his Promiſe, ſold him to a Gentleman in London. The Father of the Prince being lately dead, and the Captain being then upon the Coaſt, was ſent for to inform him that they wanted the young Prince to be brought home; but the Captain not giving them a ſatisfactory Account, he was ſeized, impriſoned, and ironed, and then confeſſed the Truth; upon which an Order was ſent to a Merchant in that Trade here to procure the Prince's Enlargement, which was done by purchaſing him of the Gentleman who bought him; and he now appears ſuitable to his Rank, and is to return to his native Country in a very little Time, and then the Captain, no Doubt, will receive his juſt Deſerts.

March 15. Yeſterday Morning Capt. Joſeph Halſey, was carried from Newgate to Execution-Dock, where he was executed about 10 o'Clock, for the Murder of Daniel Davidſon, purſuant to his Sentence at the Admiralty Court on Saturday laſt. He was a genteel young Man, about 23 Years of Age, born at Dighton in New-England, and never was in this Country before. He behaved in [illegible] Manner with a ſeeming undaunted Courage, and denied the Fact for which he ſuffered. His Body was brought back to the Surgeons Amphitheatre, in the Old-Bailey, and the Silver Oar was carried before him both going and coming back.

In the Courſe of his Trial it appeared, that the Ship which Halſey commanded, during the Illneſs and after the Death of Capt. Gallop, ſailed from Jamaica, in the Month of July laſt, in Company with a large Fleet of Merchant Ships, under Convoy of two Men of War: That ſoon after they left Jamaica, the Ship proving leaky, they were obliged to keep one Hand at work conſtantly at the Pump: That Davidſon being ſickly, and not able to clear the Ship during his half Hour, Halſey not only obliged him to pump till he had cleared her, but pump his [Halſey's] half Hour beſides: That ſoon after he put the Ship's Crew to Allowance of Water, giving three Quarts to the well Hands and but one to the Sick: That he was continually beating Davidſon, who deſired, together with two Maſters of Veſſels that came on board, to be ſent on board one of the Men of War, in Exchange for one of their Hands; which Halſey refuſed, ſaying he had no Chance fit to get on board the Men of War to make the Requeſt, and refuſed the Offer made by the two Captains, who both proffered to lend him Chance for that Purpoſe: That ſome Time after, Davidſon, tired with being ſo much beat, and wanting Neceſſaries, threw himſelf overboard, which Halſey ſeeing, went over after him, and brought him on board again, ſaying, he ſhould not think to get off ſo: That he denied him any freſh Proviſions left by Captain Gallop, and which the Captain had ordered to be given him; and that the Day before he died, tied him up to the Shrouds for an Hour, and beat him unmercifully; and that afterwards he ſtruck him on the Breaſt with a Pitch Mop, and beat him off the Quarter-Deck; after which he was helped down below, and was found dead the next Day.

March 16. The unhappy Convict, Halſey, who was executed the Day before Yeſterday, was extremely ignorant of the Laws of Nature and Nations; but for ſome Time buoy'd himſelf up with the fooliſh Hopes of perverting Juſtice by a Bribe; but being informed that was impracticable, he was for a while much dejected. He was a reſolute ſightly young Fellow, and a good Mariner; and, but for his ungovernable Paſſion, might have done great Service to his Country, and made a happy End.

Glouceſter, April 1. From Maiſey-Hampton near Fairford in this County, we have an Account of a ſhocking Piece of Villainy lately committed there by one Haines, of that Place. This Fellow had married a Daughter of Mr. Hewer, a ſubſtantial Farmer, poſſeſſed of an Eſtate of Fourſcore Pounds a Year, which he intended to divide amongſt his ſeven Children; but Haines, in order to acquire the ſole Poſſeſſion, formed a Deſign of ſhortening the Lives of the ſix who were to be Sharers with his Wife; for which Purpoſe he procured a Quantity of Arſenick, and therewith, about a Fortnight ago, poiſoned three of Mr. Hewer's Children. The Diſorder into which the Poiſon threw them was ſuppoſed to be a Fever and Sore-Throat, and they were treated accordingly; and one of the three (a young Man about 21 Years of Age) was left in the Evening, by the Phyſician who attended him, in a fair Way to recover, but was found dead next Morning. [Haines has ſince confeſſed, that during that Night he three Times put Arſenick into the Whey the young Man drank.] Laſt Monday Haines carried from Cirenceſter Market three Apple Cakes for the other Children, into which he alſo put a large Quantity of Arſenick. The Children, after eating them, were ſuddenly taken ill; and one of them is expected to die, but the other two are likely to recover. The Virulence of the Poiſon diſcovering itſelf immediately after the Childrens taking it, gave Suſpicion to the reſt of the Family; and Haines was thereupon apprehended, as was likewiſe his Father for buying the Arſenick; but the old Man ſays, that he bought it at the Requeſt of his Son, who ſignified to him an Intention of killing ſome Rats. They were both however, committed to Cirenceſter Bridewell, and were to be removed to our Caſtle To-morrow, in order to take their Trials at the Aſſizes to be held here next Week; but we are juſt informed that laſt Saturday Night the Son found means to eſcape from Bridewell.

Admiralty-Office, May 4.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Hughes, Commander of his Majeſty's Frigate Tamar, to Mr. Cleveland, dated in Plymouth Sound, May 1ſt, 1759.

"On Sunday the 30th of April, at Six o'Clock in the Morning, Portland bearing N. E. three Leagues, I ſaw two Sail coming round the Bill, and from their Appearance ſuppoſed them to be two French Privateers; I tacked and made Sail after them, and in a very ſhort Time brought one of them to, which proved to be Le Chaſſeur Privateer from Dunkirk, of 8 Carriage Guns, four of which they had thrown overboard, and 42 Hands in all. I ſhifted the Priſoners as faſt as poſſible, and then gave Chace to the other Sail, and at ſeven o'Clock in the Evening brought her to, and found her to be Le Conquerant Privateer from Cherburg, mounting 6 Carriage and 10 Swivel Guns, with 29 Hands in all. After having ſhifted the Priſoners, it blowing ſtrong Eaſterly, I bore up for Plymouth, and got in ſafe to the Sound, with the two Privateers, the next Morning."

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Tueſday laſt the following melancholy Accident happened here.—There was a Well of 23 Feet Depth, 2 and a Half Feet Diameter at the Mouth, and about 4 Feet Diameter at the Bottom, ſunk in Montgomery Ward about 3 Weeks ago, when both Maſon and Pump-Maker complained at the ſinking of it, that it was not ſafe to ſtay long in it; however, they received no Damage, as the Well lay open: But, unfortunate for theſe poor Men, it had been cover'd with looſe Boards till laſt Tueſday; when as Mr. Lawrence Van Wy was laying a Floor over it, a Piece of Board dropt in, and he went down after it;—the Owner being at a ſmall Diſtance, heard him ſigh heavily, ran to the Well, and ſeeing him in an uncommon Poſture, threw him a Rope; but did not ſee that he made any Struggle, or attempt to take hold of it; on which the Owner was ſeized with a Fit, (being ſubject to them before) and his Wife ſeeing what had happen'd, ſcream'd out, and alarm'd Mr. Bennett, and others, who ran into the Yard; and on ſeeing Van Wy in the Well, Mr. Bennett went down immediately, and was as ſuddenly ſeiz'd or ſuffocated as Wy, for he was never heard to ſpeak afterwards, and before proper Help could be got, he expir'd a Victim to Sympathy, leaving his aged and tender Parents to bewail the Loſs of a grateful and obedient Son; and Mr. Van Wy, an inconſolable Wife and Family of Children, whoſe chief Support, under GOD, he was; and whoſe diſtreſs'd Circumſtances will not, we preſume, be paſſed over in Silence.—The Jury's Verdict was, that they were ſuffocated in the Well.

July 16. By a Letter from Louiſburg, dated the 29th of laſt Month, we learn, that a 64 Gun Ship, and three other Men of War, with about 20 Sail of Veſſels, with Proviſions, &c. from this and other Ports, were to ſail that Day for our Fleet up the River St. Lawrence.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Homer arrived here in 7 Days from Louiſburg, by whom we learn, that his Majeſty's Ship Fowey of 20 Guns, having under her Convoy ſeven Ships laden with Proviſions, were ſafely arrived there from Ireland. They had no Advices from Admiral Saunders when Capt. Homer ſailed.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Leiceſter, July 10, 1759.

"This Day there happened a very awful Providence in this Town, by a Whirlwind; the firſt Diſcovery was a black Cloud in the S. W. attended with a Clap of Thunder, and very hard Wind, that took the Dwelling-Houſe of David Lynde, lifted it up ſeveral Feet from the Ground, turned it round, and blew it all to Pieces, ſo that ſome of the Timber was carried ſeveral Rods, the Boards, Clapboards and Shingles, and ſome of the Houſhold Furniture carried ſeveral Miles, one large Tree taken up by the Roots and carried above ſix Rods; a Negro Man in the Chamber, carried out 6 or 7 Rods, and ſo bruiſed that he died in a few Hours, Mr. Lynde himſelf carried out ſeveral Rods, and ſo much hurt that his Life is deſpaired of; a Traveller very much hurt; a Child of five Years old, ſtanding by the Door, was taken up and carried over the Tops of Trees 40 Rod, and had one of it's Arms broke, but like to do well; two Women and ſeveral Children in the Houſe were wonderfully preſerved. It alſo blew down his Barn, and killed two Horſes. I went to ſee the Ruins myſelf, and it appeared ſo awful to me, that I cannot at preſent give a full Deſcription of it, but hope ſome Perſon will be particular in giving the Public an accurate Account of it, the like I believe never happened in New-England before." I am, &c.

NEWPORT, July 27.

Laſt Week the Snow Volunteer, of Providence, Capt. Godfrey, came into this Port from Antigua, which he left the 29th of June; with whom came Paſſengers ſeveral Ship-maſters, who had the Misfortune to be taken and carried into Martinico, viz. the Captains Rodman, Warner, and Potter, of this Place, and Capt. Mumford, of New-London, from whom we have received the following Advices: That there were not leſs than 25 or [illegible]

[illegible] at St Martinico, ſeveral ſmall Sloops from 10 to 12 Carriage Guns, with about 120 Men in each: That three or four Prizes are carried into Port Royal in a Day: That the Enemy [illegible] of Proviſions, [illegible] from their Prizes upwards of 15000 Barrels of Beef and Pork, beſides Flour, ſince the Capitulation of Guadaloupe, which happened the 22d of April: That they were under great Apprehenſions of being inveſted a ſecond Time; and that the principal Inhabitants had removed their moſt valuable Effects into the Country: That M. Bompar departed from thence the 23d of [illegible] with his whole Fleet, except two Ships of 40 and 36 Guns, which he left to guard the Coaſt. 'Twas ſaid, he deſigned to return to France.

EDINBURGH, April 28.

On Tueſday about Mid-day, a very unfortunate Accident happened at Dundee to the Ship Planter, Capt. Mayer, belonging to that Port: The Ship was juſt arrived from Holland, laden with Flax, Flax-ſeed, &c. to the Value of about 5000 l. In coming into Port, it is cuſtomary for Ships from foreign Ports to give the Town a Salute of a few Guns. Mr. Mayer was paying this Compliment, when an unlucky Spark catched hold of ſome looſe Powder, which communicating with ſome Barrels in the Hold, blew the Ship to Pieces, and along with it the Captain, a Boy, two Sailors belonging to a Preſs-Gang, and a Tideſman (James Kinloch) belonging to the Cuſtom-Houſe Boat, all of whom were on board at the Time. The Mate and a Boy providentially were ſaved. The Remains of the Ship lie now in about four Fathoms Water; ſo that there is little or no Hope of any of the Goods being recovered. Numbers from the Town were on the Shore, waiting to congratulate the Captain and Crew on their ſafe Arrival.

CHARLES-TOWN (in SOUTH-CAROLINA) July 14.

Our Letters from England, dated the 19th of May, ſay, that two Mails from Germany had that Day arrived, with Advices portentous of Good to the Pruſſian Cauſe.

NEW-YORK, July 23.

We can aſſure the Publick, That Major General Prideaux, with 2000 Men, and 700 Indians, left Oſwego the firſt Inſtant, at 5 o'Clock in the Morning, in order to attack Niagara; and that they were to be joined by 500 more Indians on the Way, at a Place called Sodom.

By the Albany Poſt we learn, That Colonel Haldiman, and the Troops left at Oſwego, were attacked by about 1500 French, Canadians and Indians, under Monſieur Le Corne, but Colonel Haldiman having made a Breaſt-Work, repulſed them. They continued their Attack in an irregular Manner the 5th and 6th, but finding our Troops very alert, they were forced to retire. Monſ. Le Corne, by the Report of ſome Priſoners and Deſerters, was wounded with a Grape-Shot in the Thigh, and they loſt ſeveral Officers, and a great many Men; on our Side we had only five private Men killed, Capt. Sowers, of the Train, and Lieut. Otter, of the Royal American Regiment, and about 7 Men wounded. The Priſoners ſay, they are in great Conſternation at Quebec, and that they expect they will be forced to abandon Ticonderoga. Colonel Haldiman and his Garriſon were well at Oſwego, and in high Spirits.

Extract of a Letter from Oſwego, dated July 7, 1759.

"I have the Pleaſure to acquaint you, that we have defeated a Number of French and Indians, that attacked us at this Poſt the 5th Inſtant (after Major General Prideaux ſet off for Niagara) when our whole Strength amounted to no more than 1200 Men, and that of the French 1500 Regulars and Canadians, and 250 Indians. In the Morning of the 5th, a Working-Party was ſent out, covered by the Picquet; but they had not advanced 150 Yards from the Breaſt-Work, before they were ſurprized by a Party of the Enemy, who gave a Shout, and run off without diſcharging their Pieces: This Alarm cauſed every Man to take his proper Station, and all the Camp were under Arms till Nine o'Clock; but ſeeing no more of the Enemy, they were ordered to their Work again, and Captain Harkaman ſent up the Lake in a Battoe, to make Diſcoveries, who ſoon returned, and reported, that a large Army was landed about a Mile off. The Works were all manned, and Capt. Harkaman again diſpatched to make further Diſcoveries: He ſoon got oppoſite the French Encampment, when they fired 150 Shot at him, which he anſwered, and ſoon after returned. At 11 o'Clock they began to fire a few random Shot at our Encampment, and at Four the general Attack began, and continued very hot till Six, but they were ſo warmly received, that they thought it moſt prudent to retreat. At Nine o'Clock a Deſerter came in, and informed us, that they had no Cannon with them, but that they intended to force our Lines next Morning, or die in the Attempt. At Seven next Morning, agreeable to their Promiſe, they attacked us with a great Deal of Courage, and continued ſo to do till Nine, but finding their utmoſt Efforts proved abortive, being well plied with our Muſquetry and Cannon, they again retreated in very great Confuſion: They continued firing random Shot till Ten, but by Eleven we could ſee them in their Battoes, making the beſt of their Way Home.

"Captain Sowers, the Engineer, and Lieutenant Otter, of the Royal Americans, with four Private, are wounded; and three Private ditto killed. Provincials, three killed, and nine wounded.

"Five French Deſerters came in to us. They ſay they had two Officers killed, and two wounded, and that the commanding Officers of Oſwegatchie and La Gallette, were both wounded; but the Number of Privates killed, we cannot aſcertain, tho' it muſt be conſiderable."

We further learn, That ſix Deſerters had come in (three of them during the Engagement) and gave an Account, that we had killed about 100 of their Men, and wounded Numbers, among which latter was their General; who had Orders not to give or take Quarter, and to ſtorm if he was oppoſed; they alſo gave out, that the French at Montreal were in ſo low a Condition for want of Proviſions, that they hardly knew which Way to turn themſelves; and that they had learnt General Wolfe was ſafely encamped near Quebec. That our People tracked the Enemy ſome Miles, after their Flight, by their great Quantities of Blood on the Earth; and that they frequently bring in a Coat or Jacket that was of the Enemy's Slain.

It is alſo ſaid, That Mr. Haldiman's Diligence, Courage and Conduct from firſt to laſt of the Action, under God, ſaved them from being entirely cut off: That their Breaſt-works were well made and provided for; and that the Colonel, before the Action, greatly ſpirited up his Men, by repreſenting, in a true Light, the Diſadvantages of their being overcome by the Enemy, but in particular the Condition General Prideaux would be in upon his Return, in ſuch a Caſe.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated July 24, 1759.

"A few Days ſince General Amherſt detached 300 Men in Battoes to reconnoitre the Lake; but they had not proceeded far before they eſpied a Number of French, who, we imagine, were reconnoitering alſo, and having view'd each other, they drew nigh and engaged pretty ſmartly; but our People plied them ſo roundly with a 12 Pounder they had with them, that they ſoon took to their Oars, and made off, having left one of their Canoes with every Perſon that was in her. On our Side we had a Serjeant and two Men killed."

General Amherſt was to embark as laſt Thurſday for Carillon.

We hear from above, That Major Rogers, in his late Scout, landing near the Place where General Abercrombie did, was attacked by a large Party of the Enemy, but upon Rogers's firſt Fire they ſcampered off in their Battoes, and he ſaw no more of them.

Since our laſt the Troops that arrived here from Guadaloupe Yeſterday Week, have embarked on board of Sloops in order to proceed to Albany, and ſo on——Moſt of the Sloops have proceeded forward.

Several Perſons that have come to Town from the Eaſtward, within a few Days paſt, report, that there was an Expreſs paſſed thro' Norwalk, three or four Days ſince, going Poſt-haſte to General Amherſt, with an Account of General Wolfe's having taken the Iſland of Orleans, in the River St. Lawrence.——This is as much as need be mentioned with Regard to this Affair, as we dare not preſume to give it as Fact.

The Brig Antigua Volunteer, Thomas Brown, Maſter, arrived here laſt Thurſday from Montſerrat, but laſt from St. Kitts, in 15 Days. With him came Paſſenger a Gentleman, who was lately a Priſoner at Martinico, and left it but the latter End of June, when there were not leſs than 600 Engliſh Priſoners then on the Iſland, and that ſcarce a Day paſſed but four or five Prizes were carried in there.

Saturday laſt Captain Sarly arrived here in 26 Days from Kingſton, in Jamaica: The 10th Inſtant he ſaw a Ship of about 250 Tons aſhore on Cape-Florida. Her Sails were all handed, and ſeemed to have been but a ſhort Time in that Condition.

Capt. Knowles, late of the Sloop Endeavour, of Rhode-Iſland, came Paſſenger with Captain Sarly, having the Misfortune to be taken the 30th of March, by a Snow Privateer from Port-au-Prince, lately the Snow Neptune, Capt. Thompſon, of this Port.

Capt. Knowles left Port-au-Prince the firſt of June, and a Day or two before, Capt. Wiley, in a Ship from Virginia, and Capt. Brown, in a Snow from North-Carolina, both for Jamaica, were carried in there: He ſays the French have 8 Privateers out of Port-au-Prince.

Monſieur Jonquiere's Son-in-Law, whoſe Father is a noted Man among the French Indians, arrived here from Albany ſince our laſt, being taken Priſoner ſome Time ago in the Seneca's Country, by a Party of Mohawks, ſent out by Sir William Johnſon: He is a Lieutenant in the Regiment of Languedoc, now in Canada, and has been from France 3 Years: He knew of the Expedition againſt Fort-Ligonier, mentioned under the Philadelphia Head, and ſays 700 Indians were ſent out for that Purpoſe; that M. Montcalm expected three different Attacks would be made by the Engliſh againſt Canada in the Spring, viz. Quebec, Fort-Carillon, and Niagara; but that he had concerted Meaſures in ſuch a Manner, that he would be able to repel his Enemies, at leaſt at ſome of the Places abovementioned.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.

Extract of a Letter from Pittſburg, July 6, 1759.

"Three Days ago the Beaver came here with 245 Indians, of different Nations; ſome of them Deputies to confirm the Peace. We endeavoured to perſuade them to go to Philadelphia; but they are averſe to it, and ſay, they will go and viſit their Brethren, the Engliſh, where their Wives and Children can ſleep in Peace.

"An Indian Spy ſaw 15 Canoes paſs by an Indian Town where he was four Days ago, all full of Indians, going down to Venango; and he met 10 Men two Days ſince, all from over the Lakes."

Extract of another Letter from the ſame Place, July 7.

"There is no Room to doubt the Enemy's being reinforced by a greater Body of Indians than we ſuſpected.

"A Delaware Fellow, ſent to collect the Indians from the Heads of the Ohio, returned laſt Night, and brings Intelligence of 400 at leaſt being at Venango, and ſundry Parties more expected; a Reinforcement of Soldiers has likewiſe arrived. Forty French, and 290 Indians, were at the Kiſkemonitas laſt Week; one of the advanced Guard, going a Quarter of a Mile beyond his Poſt, was killed and ſcalped the 29th ult. at a Spring.

"The Beaver arrived here two Days ago with moſt of the principal Men of the Delaware Tribe. Some of the Shawaneſe, Owendats, Mohickons, Mahonies, and a few of the Six Nations, were collecting here before. They make in all about Five Hundred, and more are daily expected. The Beaver is authoriſed to treat for the diſtant Tribes; and the Owendats ſay, they are likewiſe. The Chiefs of the Shawaneſe, and moſt of that Nation, are prevented from coming here, by a Skirmiſh between their People and the Chickaſaws, in which Twenty of the Shawaneſe were killed. They were ſet off for this Place, and recalled by Accounts of that Affair.

"Five Captives are brought in to be delivered up, and the Delawares ſeem diſpoſed to bring in the Whole very ſoon."

Suppoſing the above, relating to the Reinforcement of the French at Venango, to be true, which we have no Reaſon to doubt; yet we have the Pleaſure of aſſuring our Readers, that Captain Cochran, with 200 Royal Americans, ſet off from Ligonier for Pittſburgh the 24th Inſtant; and Col. Byrd, with the Virginia Forces, was on his March for the ſame Place, by Braddock's Road; and both ſuppoſed to be there on Thurſday or Friday laſt; ſo that that Garriſon muſt be about 2400 ſtrong, Indians included. And we are likewiſe well informed, that there is great Reaſon to believe there are Proviſions of all Sorts at that Fort, for four or five Thouſand Men for two Months. That we flatter ourſelves, if the Enemy ſhould make an Attempt on that Fortreſs, they will meet with a proper Reception, [illegible]

On Sunday laſt Captain Snead arrived here in ſix Weeks from Gibraltar, by whom we have certain Advice of the Death of the KING of SPAIN: That Admiral Boſcawen arrived there with [illegible] Ships of the Line, and four Fire-ſhips, and had [illegible] a Month before [illegible] to join Admiral Broderick's Squadron, and [illegible] the Command of both, conſiſting, together, of ſeventeen Ships of the Line, four Fire-ſhips, and ſeveral Frigates; with which he was to proceed to Naples, in order to carry the King of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Spain: That he was to be joined by eighteen Spaniſh Ships of the Line, and ſix Frigates, which were to be fitted out at Cadiz and Ferrol: That twelve of theſe Ships had already ſailed to join Admiral Boſcawen; that the reſt were ſoon to follow: And that, if needful, he (Boſcawen) was to take with him what Spaniſh Land Forces he thought proper.

Captain Snead alſo adviſes, that twelve Sail of St. Domingo Men had been carried into Gibraltar by our Men of War, all very rich, beſides many other Prizes.

We hear that two of the Royal Americans have been lately killed and ſcalped near Stoney-Creek, and another carried off; and that two of our Provincials met with the ſame Fate near Loudoun, and one of them alſo made Priſoner; and that Mr. Morton, a Waggon-maſter, and a Commiſſary, were fired at, within theſe few Days, by a Party of the Enemy, between Fort Littleton and Bedford.

Wedneſday laſt Week [illegible] at Nottingham, Capt. George Fraſhers, of the Snow Friend, from London, now lading in Patuxent.

The Inhabitants of this City can't but have a peculiar Pleaſure in Reading the above Accounts (under the New-York Head) as they do great Honour to Col. HALDIMAN, whoſe Affability and Politeneſs to them, and prudent Meaſures to preſerve the exacteſt Order among the Troops Quarter'd in this Place, the Winter before laſt, are never mentioned here without the ſtrongeſt Expreſſions of Reſpect.

A DISTILLERY, with it's Appurtenances, in CHARLES-TOWN, MARYLAND, at the Head of the fine Bay of Cheſapeak, being on a Quarter of a Lot of Land in the ſame Town, near the Public Wharf. The Still-Houſe is built of Cedar 39½ by 26½ Feet clear: In it are two Stills fix'd, the largeſt containing between 1400 and 1500 Gallons, and the other about 300 Gallons, with Cooler and Worms, ſixteen Ciſterns, two Returns, one Low-Wine Ciſtern, Pumps, &c. Alſo a new Framed Houſe 29½ by 19½ Feet, with a Cellar under it, convenient to the Still-Houſe.

Any one who is acquainted with the Country, may ſee a great Opening for the carrying on a very extenſive and profitable Buſineſs through Cheſapeak and it's many fine Rivers, from this only Diſtillery in Maryland, if not alſo Virginia.—— All Grain is there cheap, being uſually from 6 d. upwards cheaper in the Buſhel than at Philadelphia. ——Wood is there at 3 s. per Cord, and there is a good Market for Flour, Lumber, and other Commodities, for a Weſt-India Trade, to be purchaſed cheap.——The Country is in flouriſhing Circumſtances, and conſumes great Quantities of ſpirituous Liquors, which at all Times are ſold at a conſiderable Advance upon the Philadelphia Price. As a further Encouragement to the Buſineſs of a Diſtiller in Maryland more than till late has been in 1756 an Exciſe of 4 d. per Gallon on Rum and ſpirituous Liquors imported from other Provinces is laid on the Retailer or Conſumer; and in 1758 a further Duty is laid upon what ſhall be brought from Pennſylvania and the Three Lower Counties of 3 d. per Gallon, to be paid by the Importer, which together make 7 Pence Duty per Gallon; whereas there is only 2 d. per Gallon charged on what is made and conſumed in Maryland.
